

PRO Rumors iPhone and iPod Touch App Exceed First Quarter Sales Goals

The PRO Rumors iPhone and iPod Touch app exceeds first quarter sales goals and expects the release of their third version of their iPhone app to drive momentum.

Santa Clara, CA (PRWEB) April 8, 2010 -- PRO Rumors, a sports utility which helps baseball fans get the latest rumors, news and relevant statistics, today announced that its iPhone and iPod Touch application has exceeded first quarter sales goals. Less than a year old, PRO Rumors can credit much of its growing success to an innovative push notification feature which instantly notifies users of breaking baseball news and rumors.

The PRO Rumors iPhone application version 3.01 which was released last week gives fans instant Major League Baseball news and rumors on their iPhone and iPod Touch devices.

"The PRO Rumors app has been a ground-breaking utility for the baseball-hungry fan," said Allan Teruel, founder of PRO Rumors. "Fans from around the world have praised the PRO Rumors iPhone app for its leading news and discerning reports of Major League developments, an innovative push notification feature, and a wealth of real-time statistics."

Teruel added, "PRO Rumors provides a unique service. For the first time, fans get the latest bulletins and hardball hearsay delivered right to their phone. Instead of scouring the web for what they want, PRO Rumors provides these fans with expert material, real-time stats, and inside information from around the league. Select info specific to favorite teams, or open up a news feed for all 30 MLB organizations, making an iPhone into a capable, full-service assistant. This is the one app which people who work in the business, fantasy nuts, and casual fans should have."

PRO Rumors offers:

- Up-to-the-minute Major League Baseball trade rumors, gossip, secrets and free agent news from all 30 MLB teams
- Push Notification: PRO Rumors utilizes Apple's latest feature to instantly notify customers of breaking news and rumors
- Ability to organize PRO Rumors by your favorite team
- Real-time game day stats for the 2010 baseball season
